

How would you like me to personally walk you through the exact steps that my clients use to dissolve their fear of public speaking and build the respect, success and recognition they deserve . . . Absolutely for FREE?

From the Desk of Justine Armstrong

Dear Friend,

Let's talk about RESULTS for a second.

Every day, my Fearless Speaking clients are raving about their successes. Overcoming gut-wrenching anxiety to deliver confident presentations, enjoying their talks and getting positive feedback from business partners, clients and staff.

In the past 6 months, Fearless Presentations has helped more C-level execs and successful business owners to dissolve their fear of public speaking than ever before. Now, they're delivering engaging presentations with confidence, allowing them to impact and persuade potential prospects and partners, inspire audiences to get behind their mission, and gain the respect and recognition they deserve.

So my question to you is: "Do you want to nail your talks and presentations with ease, or are you going to suffer through yet another year of playing small?"

If the answer is YES, I'd love to share how we're getting these results (for free).

Here's how it works. Right now, you're probably stuck on one of these 3 things...

You want to be able to feel good about presenting or talking in front of others. Not feel nervous or fearful. Not worry about whether your shaky hands or voice will give you away. Not worry about stuffing up, making a mistake, forgetting your words or being embarrassed. You don't want to feel the sweaty palms or rapid heartrate or shakiness in your body...

But here's what you really want . . .

You want to feel comfortable and confident in your presentations. You want to engage your audience, not bore them. You want them to respect your ideas, experience and views. You want them lining up to join you in your idea, project or business.

OR...

You're trying too hard when you present, but you would like to be seen as the expert you really are. You want to be the one people come to, without falling all over yourself for that to happen. You want to be known for what you offer and what you can help others achieve. You would love to receive more recognition and respect in your industry. You would love to inspire others to take action and benefit from your experience and message.

Which of those sounds more like you?

The good news is, whichever you resonate with, my team and I can show you a plan to make it a reality...and we'll do it for FREE.

Consider this: These are the kinds of results I get for my clients every single day. If I can do it for them, why not you?

Are you interested? Here's how to get my help, for FREE.

I've set aside some time to speak with you over the next few days. We'll get on the phone for about 30 minutes. On that call, I'll lay out a plan to help you do ANY or ALL of the three things I mentioned above.

This plan is going to enable you to hit your public speaking and presentation goals this year... and blow right past them. It's a big promise... But after helping so many people, including CEO's of multi-million dollar companies, Olympic athletes, and successful 6 and 7 figure business owners, I feel 100% confident I can help you do the same.

The information you receive will be SIMPLE, CLEAR, and the opposite of anything you've heard from anyone else. After all, I have over 30 years' experience as a psychologist, educator, speaker and trainer. I've worked across six countries, helping thousands of people in multinational, private, government and community organisations. My programs work.

And that's because I've been there - shy, unconfident, unable to speak in front of even three people. I teach my clients what took me several decades to learn, including spending hundreds of thousands of dollars with the world's top leadership experts and speakers.

I know that if we work together and you are coachable, open and dedicated...there is NO limit to what you can achieve in your presentations and speaking.

However, this invitation is going out to a lot people right now. So as you can imagine, it's going to create a huge response. That's why I need you to read this next part carefully:

My offer is NOT for Everybody.

I'm very picky about who I speak with, and I have a strict (but reasonable) set of criteria that needs to be met in order for us to proceed:

1. You need to enjoy providing real value to people. This is for people who have genuine knowledge or expertise that helps people solve problems in life or business. If you can do that, and you want more success, respect and recognition, let's talk. But, if you're selling a cheap widget that offers little real value, then this offer is not for you.
2. You must be an action-taker who is open and coachable (Don't worry - we won't ask you to do anything strange.) If you like to just think about things without taking action or you sign up for course after course and don't follow through, this is NOT for you. Maintaining a 100% client success rate is VERY important to me. You need to be someone who doesn't mess around and is serious about your results.

If you meet BOTH of those requirements, here's what to do next.

Head over to www.fearlesspeaking.com.au/apply and you'll see my calendar. Grab whatever appointment time works for you.

Then you'll be taken to a quick application form. It's very easy and simple. I just need to know what your business or work is, what your biggest challenges are and what you want to accomplish.

That's it! The call will go 30-45 minutes, and it will be the BEST time you have ever spent working on your public speaking or presentation skills and confidence.

WARNING - TIME IS A FACTOR!

This invitation is going out to a lot of people today, and there is only so much time available in my schedule. It's physically impossible for me to work with more than a handful of people, so it is FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

If you feel like this is the right time for you to take your public speaking and presentation skills to the next level, click here, fill in your application, and let's talk!

Kind regards,
Justine Armstrong.
